The Manamaker Store

O¢ a. DAY

-for awhile-will make you the owner of the newly revised and completed Century Dictionary and Cyclopedia and Atlasunder the terms of the Wanamaker Clubnow forming-whose members secure the great work at Half Price and in $3.00 monthly payments (for 14 months-or a little longer, according to the binding you select).

The price-saving will be better appreciated when we tell you that already at retail prices over five million dollars' worth of the volumes have been sold in this country alone. It is only by taking an entire edition that we are able to reduce the price one-half and permit the payment of the balance in such trifling instalments.

Hardly any one but has planned to own this reference work sooner or later. The opportunity is to-day, and the edition is the one just completed and brought down to date, with new material added in every department.

There is so much to tell about—the quality, the bindings, the superb illustrations, the modern maps in colors, the details of the purchase-termsfar too much for newspaper space.

At the store you can see the volumes themselves and take home with you specimen pages, maps, etc. Or, if you prefer, write to us, and by return mail a specimen book, etc., will be sent you.

The one work in the world that is equally necessary to the home-body, the business man and woman, the employer and the clerk, the scholar, the teacher, the manufacturer and the artisan is

THE hardest thing in the world to root out and kill is a baseless prejudice. Like weeds and vermin and other inexplicable things, the less reason it has for existence, the greater its vitality.

We take the more pride, therefore, that we have overborne the prejudice that some men have held against "dry-goods store" clothing and tailoring.

Why shouldn't the Wanamaker stores be as good clothiers of men as of women? Why shouldn't they be best clothiers of men, as of women? What can a clothier possess that we do not possess? And Bla how much do we have in facilities, grasp, opportunity and power that are ours alone!

Our New York public has evidently been asking itself these questions and recalling, too, that we dressed men for years before we began supplying styles for women. We conduct both branches for men, -ready-towear and made-to-measure. In both Cu we have earned and enjoy favor and prominence, simply because there is no reason why we should not, and every reason why we should.

If you'd like practical evidence, look over these in the ready-to- Hea wear line:-
